

Fine Arts Course Selection for Penn Wood High School Green Avenue Campus

course name	Introduction to drawing	Studio Portfolio I	Studio Portfolio II	Advanced Placement Studio Art
Offered	Fall or Spring Semester (1/2 year course)	Full Year Course	Full Year Course	Full Year Course
Open to	Everyone	Those who have successfully completed Introduction to Drawing or Two Dimensional Design.	Those who have successfully completed Studio Portfolio I	Those who have successfully completed Studio Portfolio II and have teacher permission
Topics	How to draw How to Shade Introduction to Perspective Figure Drawing Self Portraiture	Advanced Drawing and introduction to color theory. Introduction to Painting, including oils and watercolors.	Advanced Topics in Drawing including complex perspective. Further painting skills with more complex assignments.	Individual student-designed projects along with assignments suitable for AP exam. College Level work.
College/career Preparation	Drawing is a required foundation to careers in the arts, including Fashion design, web design, fine arts and digital media	Begin to develop art portfolio suitable for admission to college art programs. Projects develop skills for a wide range of careers in the arts, including fashion design and digital media.	Advanced art portfolio development suitable for admission to college art programs. Projects develop skills for a wide range of careers in the arts, including fashion design, digital media and broad range of arts careers	Potential to earn college credit and develop advanced Art Portfolio. Pace of course prepares students for college level work and a wide range of careers in the arts. Note: speak with teacher if considering this option!

Note, students may also wish to select ceramics courses, which are explained in the Course Selection Catalogue, available in the Guidance Department.